

Study Group Icon & Notes Summary Matrix
Weminuche Landscape, Pagosa 5/26/'05

Primary Use	Concern	Opportunity
Mountain climbing (Peak Bagging) Nature Observation Non Motorized Traditional Uses Back Country Camping BackPacking Grazing Hiking Horseback Hunting Wildlife Habitat	Commercial use Forest Health Grazing Horseback Law Enforcement Mixed Rec Use Conflict Access & Parking Altered Landscape ATV Back Country Camping Camping Impacts	Better Maps showing allowed uses Better Signage Education Encourage Multiple User Groups to cooperate Forest Restoration Grazing Improved Trailhead Permit system Riparian restoration Science Collaboration Trail expansions User Stewardship
Outstanding Features	Weeds & Invasive Species Wildlife Habitat Winter Range Adverse impacts of camping on riparian systems Adverse impacts of grazing on wildlife ATVs are causing resource damage Grazing causing resource damage Horses cause damage to trails Impacts of horse camps on resources and litter Keep it a designated wilderness, always Problems with horses & hikers on steep trails Motorized routes being created illegally Hunters cause litter and resource damage	Wilderness Addition Wildlife habitat Better trail signage Keep the wilderness open for grazing Improve trails Reclaim old logged areas. Reintroduction of natural predators Employ a permit system to enforce rules
Natural Process Natural Setting Peaks/Summits Geologic Features Multiple Uses River/Streams Solitude Vegetation Views/ScenicResources Wilderness Wildlife True pristine country Big game range Great place to disappear Wilderness should be wild		