

Study Group Icon & Notes Summary Matrix
Dove Creek Landscape, Dolores 4/14/'05

Primary Use	Concern	Opportunity
All Uses	Access & Parking	Better Maps showing allowed uses
ATV	All Uses	Better Signage
Fishing	Altered Landscapes	Disperse Uses
Forest Health	ATV	Encourage Multiple User Groups to
Grazing	Camping Impacts	Grazing
Hunting	Fisheries	Motorized Loop Routes
Mountain Biking	Forest Health	Motorized route Creation
Multiple Uses	Law Enforcement	Multiple recreation Use
Nature Observation	Mixed Rec Use Conflict	Multiple Uses
River Running	Motorized/Non Motorized conflict	Oil & Gas
Wildlife Habitat	Mountain Biking	Riparian restoration
Outstanding Feature	Multiple Recreation	User Stewardship
4WD Trails	Oil & Gas	Designate Dolores as Wild & Scenic River
Geologic Features	Riparian degradation	Mineral development
High level of Human Activity	River running	More water flows for river sports
Loop routes	Weeds & Invasive Species	Protect Lower Dolores from damage
Multiple Recreation Use	Wildlife Habitat
Multiple Uses	Contamination of water sources
Natural Setting	Low releases from McPhee-ecological impacts
Other	Motorized use occurring off of existing trails-roads
River/Streams	Oil and Gas adverse impacts on ecosystem health.
Vies/Scenic Resources	Timber stands unhealthy - fire danger
Wilderness
Wildlife
Dolores River Overlook
The Lower Dolores river canyon		