

River Protection Workgroup for the Animas River
Thursday, June 23, 2011
5:30 to 8:30 p.m.
Kendall Mountain Recreation Center

Proposed Outcomes:

- To kick off the River Protection Workgroup for the Animas River
- To orient interested stakeholders to the River Protection Workgroup project and to the local effort
- To review organizing materials (map and information sheet)

Agenda

- I) Introductions
- II) Meeting Opening
- III) Agreement on Meeting Outcomes and Agenda
- IV) Who is the River Protection Workgroup? Steve Fearn, Southwestern Water Conservation District and Chuck Wanner, Fiver Rivers Chapter of Trout Unlimited
- V) Proposed Workgroup Process:
 - Purpose
 - Expectations of Working Group Members
 - Outline of the Three-Phased Process + Regional Discussion
 - Process Principles
 - Method of Decision Making: Consensus
 - Discussion with Q&A
 - Determining if there is interest in proceeding
 - Additional stakeholders to invite
- VI) Break
- VII) Introduction to the Animas River (above Baker's Bridge + several tributaries)
 - Initial Information Sheet
 - Map
 - Additional information needs
- VIII) Additional questions
- IX) Next Meeting(s) and Schedule

NOTE: The Web site for the River Protection

Workgroup is:

ocs.fortlewis.edu/riverprotection