

River Protection Workgroup for the Animas River
Thursday, August 25, 2011
5:30 to 8:30 p.m.
Kendall Mountain Recreation Center

Proposed Outcomes:

- To identify and discuss values -- human, social, economic and ecological for the Area of Focus
- To continue to orient new stakeholders to the River Protection Workgroup for the Animas River
- To finalize the Information Sheet (this phase...the document can be added to throughout the process)

Agenda

- I) Introductions
- II) Meeting Opening: Outcomes and Agenda, and Ground Rules
- III) Brief Review of the RPW Process Model, Goal/Purpose of the Workgroup, Definition of Consensus and Principles
- IV) Review of the third draft of the Initial Information Sheet for the Animas River (see the email early the week of 8/22)
- V) Discussion and Listing of Values to Protect (human, social, economic and ecological)
- VI) Preview of upcoming meeting schedule with: a) field trip (Do people want this?) b) Discussion of the Animas River Stakeholders and what they do c) A Panel on River Protection Tools d) Other
- VII) Next Meeting(s) and Schedule

NOTE: The Web site for the River Protection

Workgroup is:

<http://ocs.fortlewis.edu/riverprotection>